Good Morning and Welcome to Anderson, SC located in the heart of everything fun! This fun tour is all about eating, sipping and tasting our way through the day...

- Our first stop of the morning is to Happy Cow Creamery. Happy Cows make good milk and Farmer Tom knows how to make happy cows! We are going to ride through the farm and learn about Farmer Tom’s 12 April’s and have a tasting of the wonderful milk that Happy Cow produces... Whole Milk, Buttermilk, Chocolate Milk and Strawberry Milk.

- Next stop is City Scape Winery where we will learn about wine making and the grapes that City Scape produces. Enjoy a tasting and learn how to be a Wine connoisseur.

- After so much to drink you need food! It’s time for lunch at a one of a kind, local’s favorite and soon to be yours too! Welcome to Grit’s & Groceries operated by Heidi and Joe Trull. They bring a mixture of Cajun, Creole and Southern cooking traditions to their food.

- After lunch it’s time to continue on our tasting tour of Anderson with a visit to CocoBon Chocolatier. They have a passion for Chocolate making! Learn about the process and have a sample of their homemade chocolate.

- Last stop of the day is the First Legal Moonshine Distillery in South Carolina... Palmetto Distillery. Enjoy the scenery as we tour their downtown location and headquarters. Sip the White Lightning, Apple Pie, Blackberry or Peach Moonshine. Did you know that Palmetto Moonshine has locations in Myrtle Beach, Anderson and coming soon to the Greenville-Spartanburg Airport? Learn from the brothers what they are doing to help change the laws in SC to save tax payers money by producing moonshine!

It’s been a fabulous day of eating and tasting our way through Anderson. Thank you for coming and spending the day with us and come back to see us real soon!

But, if an Overnight Trip is more your style...

- A boat cruise on beautiful Lake Hartwell
- Sample homemade goat cheese at Split Creek Goat Farm
- Eat delicious BBQ from Creekstyle BBQ
- Go back in time with a tour of Ashtabula or Woodburn Plantation
- Enjoy a fabulous lunch or dinner at one of the many local restaurants
Welcome to Anderson, SC located on beautiful Lake Hartwell at the base of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Anderson has all the exciting things that a Big City offers, but without the traffic! Come to Anderson and enjoy peace and relaxation while shopping at antique stores, immersing yourself in art galleries, touring historic homes or just enjoy a farm to table meal. There is something for everyone in Anderson. Let us help you plan your perfect trip.

Anderson is right on I-85 between Atlanta, GA and Charlotte, NC. It’s easy to get to and from anywhere and a place you will not want to leave once you’re here, Anderson is called “The Electric City” because it was the first City in the Southeastern United States to have electricity. Come to Anderson for a hub and spoke tour, we are centrally located to everything. While you’re here, you can take a Lake Hartwell boat ride, Moonshine Distillery Tour and then take a road trip to the North Georgia Mountains to see the waterfalls and mountain folk art. Anderson is right down the road from Asheville, NC, Greenville, SC and Pigeon Forge, TN. Stay here, play here and hub and spoke out of Anderson...it’s that easy!
